Dear Professor Inan,

recently I had a letter from David French, who said that he had talked with you about my interest in working at Cremna. I have now arranged to come to Turkey myself between 15th and 22nd September, and I very much hope that we can meet then. David French told me that you would be in Side during August and September. Could you possibly let me know whether you will in fact be there during that week, or whether you will have returned to Istanbul? I would certainly be happy to come down to Side - in fact that will give me a welcome opportunity to revisit the sites on the south coast in preparation for next year's Archaeological Report on Asia Minor.

I am about to start some extensive travelling, so could you send a reply, letting me know of your whereabouts in September to this address:
