OXFORD.

25 Apr. 1961.

Dear Dr. Inan,

Thank you very much for your letter, which I was delighted to receive this morning. Welcome to Britain!

I have arranged your lecture here for 5 p.m. on 10 May, at the Ashmolean Museum, and we shall much look forward to it.

Shall you come from London that day and would you like to stay the night? Will Dr.

Rosenthal be with you? If not, I would arrange to meet you at the Station if I know by what train

you were coming.

Yours sincerely

Dear Dr. Luan,

Thank you so much for the really beautiful photographs: these unprompted pictures are often the best and I think this a very good one.

I shall be in London for the opening of the Exhibition on Monday next (26th) and then at Silchester.

Perhaps I shall see you at one or with very kindest regards

Yr. obsvr.
