My dear Director,

I was very pleased to get your letter of the 29th of February and to know that you had safely received the copy of "British Art in the Mediterranean".

It seems unusually difficult here, too, to get watercolour paints and sketching blocks, but I have now been able to arrange that a selection of these will be sent to you by Messrs Winsor & Newton as soon as they can get the colours I have selected for you. I will be glad to know if these arrive safely and I hope the selection I have made will meet your requirements; but, if there are any others you would particularly like to have and, if you will let me know what these are, I will have them sent on to you also.

With our kindest remembrances,

Yours sincerely,

David Pinner
