

Handwritten text in Persian script, likely a letter or document, covering the majority of the page. The text is written in a cursive style and is somewhat faded and difficult to read in many places. It appears to be a formal or semi-formal communication.

Handwritten notes or signatures in Persian script, located on the right side of the page. These notes are written vertically and include some illegible characters and possibly a signature at the bottom.

Boğaziçi Üniversitesi

Arşiv ve Dokümantasyon Merkezi

Kişisel Arşivlerle İstanbul'da Bilim, Kültür ve Eğitim Tarihi

Aziz Ogan Koleksiyonu

OGNIST0300104