Dear Dursley,

We're safely back in Cambridge and already missing your wonderful hospitality.

The best weather in a month coincided with our arrival yesterday, but today is cold and rainy again.

Our stay in Athens was most pleasant. In addition to the usual tourist sights we also took a boat ride out to visit three of the islands with historical ruins. It was a most enjoyable day.

The twins sent their love to Janet and Yusuf and are hoping to see the latter in California soon.

Love,
Paul
