Dear Feza and Suha:

Thanks for your fine letter. Also, thanks-- the check has arrived.

Also, most thanks--after 10 days in the New York Hospital, they finally figured out what was wrong with me. I am home now a week, and feeling much better, and the docs say I can surely come. So, now I have a million things to do to get ready. When we see you we'll fill you in on the mysterious Charlotte Serber who was really fading away (89 pounds)--but I'm back to normal in weight, and almost so in strength.

Sad to say, my study of Turkish began and ended the day of that letter. So you'll have to put up with english.

The hotels you have chosen we are certain must be the best. So, we leave it to you. The Bulvar Palas. Be sure it is a large room,

Our schedule is as I wrote it before. In case you lost it--London--Park Lane Hotel June 1-10.
Istanbul Hilton night of June 10. Fly to Ankara June 11 arriving 3:45 pm. We will go to the Bulvar Palas and expect to find our room ready for us. OK?

All love and you can't imagine how pleased I am that we are coming, since for quite a while, although we did not tell you, I was mighty sick.

Love Charlotte and Bob
