PREFATORY.

YOU have neither the time nor the inclination, possibly, to keep a full diary. Suppose, however, out of the multitude of matters that crowd each day, you jot down in a line or two those most worthy of remembrance. Such a book will be of the greatest value in after years. What a record of events, incidents, joys, sorrows, successes, failures, things accomplished, things attempted. This book is designed for just such a record. It can be commenced on any day of the year, and is so printed that it is good for any five years.

To illustrate how it should be used, suppose that it is begun on January 1. Under that day, in the first space, add the proper figures for the year to the date as printed. On the next day, January 2, do likewise, and so on through the year. When the year is ended begin again under January 1 for the second year, adding the appropriate figures in each of the second spaces, and so right through the remaining years.

PREPATORY

OU have entered the date for the first nation, possibly, to keep a full diary. suppose, however, out of the main line of matters that crowd each day, you put down in a line or two those most worthy of transcription. Such a book will be of the greatest value in after years. What a record of events, incidents, joys, sorrows, successes, failures, things accomplished, things attempted. Your book is designed for just such a record. It can be continued on any day of the year, and is so planned that it is good for any five years.
To illustrate how it should be used, suppose that it is begun on January 1. Under that day, in the first space, add the proper figures for the year to the date as printed.
On the next day, January 2, do likewise,

My own dearest M^r,

Ever since you wrote me that wonderful letter at Christmas - it almost made me cry with pleasure - I've been intending to write you a little note : and now you've been and reenacted the seven days of Creation, all on my behalf! I do love you so but I can't for the life of me see imagine what you see in me worth lavishing so much kindness and affection upon ~~me~~. I really am an awful rotten deep down under: and I hate to feel you are being taken in by me. What you so kindly said about my "warm heart" and "just mind" of course ~~that time~~ unfortunately isn't true. That you should choose those qualities ^{as} of mine gave me infinite pleasure because they are those I most covet - but I haven't got them; I haven't. I haven't. I'm a frigid mass of prejudices. If since I've been here there have been occasional gleams of better things, it is you that applied the match and fanned the very feeble flame - you and you only; so in thanking you again for the labours of Re-creation, I'm really thanking you for something very much deeper.

Your loving son
Tim.

P.S.

Am I too unbearably conceited for words? Of course, I know I am somewhat, but a kind "candid" friend said to me to-day - "I can't understand why everybody says you are so intolerably conceited: I haven't noticed it so much" !!

This is very sad. I'm going to have a Court of Enquiry (5 members - you as President). If it decides affirmatively, drastic steps must be taken. A little conceit can be born but a lot is unforgivable. I'd much rather be thought vain!

Yours ever

S.R.
