

CONFIDENTIAL

Memorandum for the attention of Dr. Ballantine, Mr. Van Dyke
and Mr. Kreider

1. Copy of the Will of Mrs. Middleton Edwards

I am putting this document in the College safe. In case of Mrs. Edwards' death while Mrs. Scott and I are in the United States during the months of August, September, October and part of November, access to the will may be requested by Bay Lazarakı Kırkcıođlu, (lawyer) whose office is in the Karaköy Palas, Karaköy (Galata) or by Miss Phoebe Clary. Bay Kırkcıođlu and I are co-executors of Mrs. Edwards' will as it affects her properties in Turkey.

I authorize access to the will by one or both of these parties.

2. The Will of Harold L. and Eveline T. Scott

A copy of this will is in the College safe. I think it prudent for the College authorities to be told something about the provisions of our will and the location and nature of our moderate estate. There is always the thousand (or more) to one chance that something decisive might happen to us both simultaneously. It would be of importance for the College authorities to have this information because we are leaving all we possess to the Trustees of Robert College for the benefit of the Robert College Library.

The executrix is our friend, Miss Eleanor S. Upton, 21 Hoskier Road, South Orange, New Jersey. The lawyer who drew the will for us is Mr. Michael N. Chanalis of the firm of Chanalis, Lynch and Maloney, 9 Clinton Street, Newark 2 New Jersey.

Our savings are distributed as follows:

1. Savings Banks in New York City
 - Union Dime Savings Bank
 - Greenwich Savings Bank
 - East River Savings Bank
2. United States Savings Bonds on deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Account no. 27575. The bonds were purchased through the Chase Manhattan Bank, Rockefeller Center Branch, New York City.
3. Current Accounts

Chase Manhattan Bank, Rockefeller Center Branch
National Newark and Essex Bank, So. Orange Branch
So. Orange N.J.

4. In England

Investments and checking account with
Glyn Mills and Co., 67 Lombard St. London E.C.3

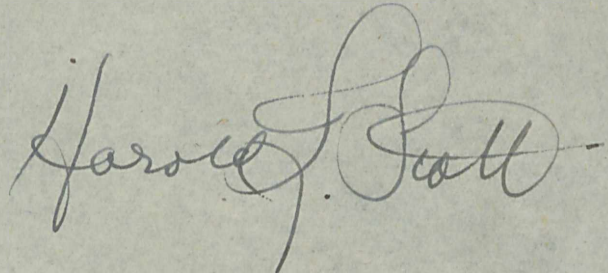

In addition to these moneys all our personal belongings in Istanbul will also become the property of the Trustees of Robert College, the proceeds of the sale of which would also be used for the benefit of the Robert College Library.

I estimate the total value of our estate, including personal property in Istanbul to be roughly forty thousand dollars.

Miss Eleanor S. Upton, as well as being the executrix of the wills, has our power-of-attorney and has all information about our savings accounts in the United States.
