Re: Herakles Statue

Dear Professor Inan:

I understand that Aydin Duren has advised you that we have been refused access at this time to the top half of the Herakles statue. The holders of the statue have decided instead that they wish to make a plaster cast of the top half of the statue after it returns to Boston in July. Accordingly, there will be no need for you to come to New York later this month.

If you have any questions concerning this, please call either Aydin or myself collect.

Very truly yours,

Scott T. Tross
